Help out with Fly Tying Classes

Do you want to do something for the club but don't know how you could help? This could be your opportunity!

Since I'm stepping away from running the fly tying classes, the club is in need of one or more volunteers to take over these duties. Classes coming up at the beginning of next year and, some steps of preparation need to get started very soon.

A couple of guys have indicated some interest but no firm "takes" yet.

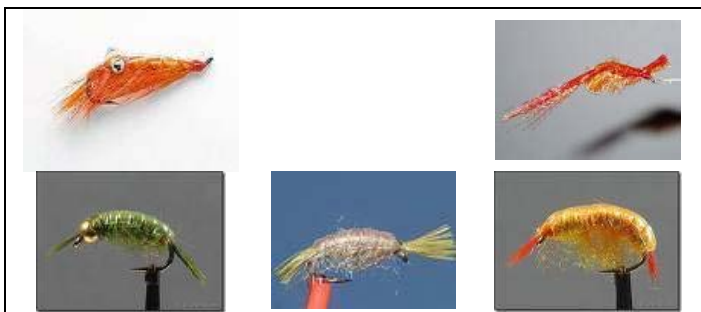

The duties could easily be split up between two or more guys who I would "guide" along the process.

Please contact Rob Gamage by e-mail at- ragflyguy@hotmail.com or phone at 360-691-9997.

Fly Tying Contest By John Gattinella

With our monthly meeting back in full swing, there were plenty of folks but only a few flies - must have been the new suave clubhouse. Jack Hutchinson had the best-looking hopper fly. Congratulations Jack! This month's fly is your favorite shrimp or scud pattern in a size #10-18. Scuds are a great fly that can be "twiched" along the bottom for effect. For the salt water fly guys, stripping a more traditional shrimp pattern in a "sand" or pinkish color can have productive results. Here's some pictures for ideas. We want to see your favorite pattern at the meeting!

Ghillie Report By Rob Gamage

If you were at last month's club meeting you may remember that I made an announcement that we will require that dinners be reserved for all meetings at Gleneagle in the future. This is to ensure the quantity of food they prepare is appropriate for our attendance. Otherwise, there is no possible way for me to predict how many of you will want to eat dinner at the meeting.

I have to give the management a number of dinners to prepare for us one week in advance of the meeting. Having an accurate count will be very helpful for us and them.

So, for now- From now on, if you want dinner- you need to let me know, via e-mail or phone, by the Swirl Tips cut-off date (these dates are marked in your club calendar). My e-mail address is ragflyguy@hotmail.com, my home phone number is 360-691-9997, and my work phone number is 206-423-1297.

If you call and I don't answer, PLEASE leave a message with your first and last name and how many dinners you are reserving.

As of now, they still don't have their liquor license so if you want to consume alcoholic beverages you will have to bring your own.

I apologize if this makes things a little more complicated. I you have any suggestions that would make this easier for all of us, I'm all ears!

Kalama Cup By Gordon Swanson

Now is the time for all good steelheaders to come to the aid of their club. The Kalama Cup is up for grabs on the Umpqua River Sept. 19th, 20th and 21st. If you haven't been to the Umpqua River, you are missing a beautiful river to see and fish. Be sure to have felt and studs on your wading shoes. The McKenzies are wonderful hosts and they may even let you go thru the drift first but don't count on it. Dan White, chef, will treat you to a wonderful meal on Saturday night. I have to know how many plan to go the Umpqua so they can plan for dinner. Please notify Gordon Swanson at 425-337-8246.

Membership Report By Mark Simpson

Please welcome our new member, accepted at the recent board meeting:
John (Jake) Jacobson, 912 Fifth Ave, Mukilteo, WA 98275, 425-353-2346, jjacobson1@verizon.net, wife Marilyn. Jake has been fly fishing 45 years and is looking forward to fellowship and working conservation issues with our club. He prefers ocean fishing, has started tying flies, and collects books. Jake is a Trout Unlimited member and belongs to The Nature Conservancy and Society for Ecological Restoration. He is sponsored by Jesse Scott. Tight Lines Jake!

Sea-Run Cutthroat Signs

Reminder by Vernon Young,
Salmon and Sea-Run Cutthroat Chair

The Washington State Council of the FFF has sea-run cutthroat regulation signs that need posting at saltwater marine areas and along the lower Columbia River and its tributaries. Please check your favorite fishing and launching locations to see if the signs are up. If a new sign is needed, volunteer to install one. Signs can be obtained by contacting
Vernon Young, 253-265-6162
E-Mail vjblyoung@comcast.net or by writing WSCFFF PO Box 921 Gig Harbor, WA 98335

"It's another reoccurring nightmare, Doc. In this one, I'm using my favorite bamboo rod and my fishing partner is a Panda."

Wanted and
